ALLARD REACTION TO STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS

SAYS PRESIDENT BUSH DELIVERED UPLIFTING PRINCIPLED MESSAGE

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Senator Wayne Allard (R-CO) gave the following remarks in reaction to President Bush’s State of the Union Address on Tuesday night:

“President Bush provided an uplifting, principled message to the nation,” Senator Allard said. . “In declaring the state of the union ‘strong,’ he outlined to the American people a vision for keeping our nation prosperous and safe.”

“I was particularly pleased with his call on Congress to make permanent the tax cuts that are the basis of our economic growth and have spurred the economic recovery,” added Allard. “Like President Kennedy and President Reagan before him, President Bush realizes that job creation takes place when we lessen the tax burden on working men and women.”
